S. PARIS 6—GOULD 0

Gould Academy returned from South Paris last Saturday, Oct. 17, on the short end of a 6-0 score. The Cardinals scored in the first half from the seven-yard line after a determined march from mid-field. Harry Stearns scored.

The Gould team was repeatedly threatening throughout the last half, but did not have the scoring punch. Rosenberg gave Paris fans cold chills when he broke away, after receiving a screen pass, to jaunt 40 yards, but could not outdistance the last defender to the goal. He was in the open, but caught from behind on the 25-yard line where Paris stopped the rally to stave off another threat.

LITTLETON, N. H., MEETS GOULD SATURDAY

Gould Academy, still seeking its first victory of the year, entertains a new foe this Saturday, in Littleton, N. H., High School. The New Hampshire club comes with a reputation of many strong teams in the past and one this year that will hold up its own with the best.

The "Blue and Gold" eleven is bent on getting into the winning column and must soon show its wares if it succeeds, as there is only one game left after this one. The inexperienced Gould outfit, however, has been improving each week and may turn the trick on Saturday. It is hoped that Coolidge and Bennett will be back in the line-up after seeing no service this week because of injuries. With the team intact, fans should see a game well worth while.

Fans of Bethel and visitors are welcome as there is no charge for admission. The Gould Academy band is planning to help entertain between halves. The starting time of the game is 2:00 p. m. on Saturday.

Richard Peabody, who has had employment at Akron, Ohio, is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Peabody.

Fred B. Merrill and Edward Hansom are spending this week at the sporting camps of F. Perley Flint, Wilson's Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. William Zint have returned to their home here from Mountain View Hotel, where they were employed this summer.

The pumper crew was called to Middle Intervale Saturday afternoon to extinguish a fire in the woods near the home of Harold Bartlett.

Mrs. Frank Tonis and Miss Marion Brooks, both of Needham, Mass., and Lester Brooks of West Roxbury, Mass., were week-end guests of Mrs. True Eames and family.

Mrs. Custer Quimby and daughter, Pamela, who have been guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hall, went to their home at Raymond N. H., Sunday. They were accompanied by Miss Madeleine Hall.

Herbert R. Rowe has employment at Bath. Mr. and Mrs. Rowe are staying at present at the home of Mrs. Rowe's brother, Everett, Enman. Their daughter, Margery, is staying with her grandmother Mrs. Alice Rowe, and attending school.

People who are interested in attending the Advanced First Aid Class which is to start Friday evening, Oct. 23, at 7:30 at the Legion Rooms, are to bring their First Aid books and bandages and be prepared to recite on the first four chapters.

U. S. TROOPS ON MANY PACIFIC ISLES; ARMY AIDING IN SOLOMONS

A Week of the War

Acting at the suggestion of the President and the request of the War Department, the House passed and sent to the Senate legislation to reduce the minimum draft age from 20 to 18. The bill provides that those who are in high school or college may finish the present school year, but after next July educational deferments would be forbidden. The bill would also make mandatory the policy of calling all single men in a State before calling married men, and then calling all childless married men before men with children.

Secretary of War Stimson announced there are approximately 4,250,000 men in the Army at present and this total will be increased to 7,500,000 by the end of 1943—distributed as follows: 3,800,000 in ground forces, 2,200,000 in the air force, 1,000,000 in training and 1,000,000 in supply services. Mr. Stimson said 18 and 19-year-olds are more responsive to leadership, are not as easily fatigued and make better soldiers than older men. He said there is danger at present that the Army might get too old. In March of this year the average age of divisions was 26 years and two months, but in August the figure had risen to 28 years and two months.

If the draft age is lowered to 18, a 7,500,000-man Army can be built up in 1943 without calling married men with children. Selective Service Director Hershey reported. Induction of married men with wives only will begin immediately to fill the Army's call for 1,100,000 by Jan. 1, he said.

The War Front

Secretary Stimson announced that ground units of the Army are now aiding the Marines in the defense of Guadalcanal in the Solomons, and Army air and ground troops are now stationed in New Zealand, New Caledonia, the New Hebrides and Fiji Islands. "The Japanese are continuing to bomb our airfield and shore positions on Guadalcanal Island and it is believed that enemy troops and equipment are being disposed for a strong assault against our airfield," the Navy reported Oct. 18. During the early morning of Oct. 17 about 14 enemy bombers, escorted by eight fighters, attacked the Guadalcanal airfield and shore positions, the communiqué said but U. S. fighters and antiaircraft batteries shot down all the bombers and two of the fighters. These latest raids brought the toll of Japanese aircraft since Solomons fighting began last August to 307 of all types destroyed.

"Although large numbers of Japanese troops are known to be on Guadalcanal Island there has been, as yet, no full scale land fighting," the Navy said. "Our losses in the current fighting to date (Oct. 18) have been minor, but in a battle of this nature losses must be expected. All information on the fighting in the Solomons which is not of value to the enemy is being announced as soon as possible after being received." Gen. MacArthur's headquarters reported Oct. 19 that Allied bombers attacking Japanese shipping concentrations off Buin in the northern Solomons scored probable hits on three enemy cruisers, a large seaplane tender, seven flying boats and several cargo vessels. In the Aleutians, U. S. ground forces took a third island in the Andreanof group, and Army medium bombers bombed two more enemy destroyers near Kiska.

OIL RATIONING INSTRUCTIONS ANNOUNCED TODAY BY OPA

To assist homeowners and users of fuel oil and kerosene in private dwellings to obtain and fill out their applications for fuel oil rations, the Regional Office of Price Administration today announced the following instructions:

Every type of fuel oil, including kerosene, is now rationed. If you use fuel oil or kerosene for heating, cooking, hot water, lighting, power or farm equipment you must apply for rations on one of two forms: R-1100 or R-1103, or both.

For domestic heating and hot water in private dwellings of three families or less, use Form R-1100. For all other purposes in private dwellings, use Form R-1103.

If you have a regular fuel oil or kerosene dealer, he should supply you with the proper application forms. If you have not received your forms, or you have no regular dealer, you may obtain them from your local war price and rationing board or at schoolhouse registration places.

You should have a record of the size of your fuel oil and kerosene tanks; the amount of fuel you used during the year ending May 31, 1942, and the amount of oil or kerosene you had in your tanks on Oct. 1, 1942. You will also be required to state how much fuel oil or kerosene you purchased since Oct. 1, 1942.

If you or your dealer has no record of the amount of oil or kerosene you used last year, you must estimate it carefully from your own records. This is an important figure the board may use in determining your basic fuel oil or kerosene ration.

You must list and describe all oil or kerosene burning units used in your home.

Measure the rooms in your house that are necessary to be heated for the current heating season. Take your measurements to the nearest foot. You should measure the floor area only and do not include the following rooms unless heating such space is essential for sleeping or commercial purposes:

Basement space, laundries, sleeping porches, sun porches, garage space, recreation rooms, workshops, attics, storage spaces other than closets that open into heated spaces, or hallways and stairs that serve more than one family for common usage.

With this information, fill out your application form and take or mail it to your local rationing board, except that in states where schoolhouse registration is to be used, take your filled-out application to the registration place. Be sure it is completely and accurately filled out. It will save you extra trips back to the registration place.

Say you saw it in the Citizen.

FUEL OIL RATIONING

All private families using fuel oil or kerosene for heating or for hot water are to bring their applications, properly filled out, to the Bethel Grammar School on Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 26 and 27, between 3:30 and 8:00 p. m. It is important that all customers secure their applications at once in order to have plenty of time to obtain and record the required information. Floor space and ceilings of all heated rooms must be recorded, also records or estimates of the amount of oil used last year. These records or estimates are to be given to the customer by his dealer.

The teachers and their helpers solicit the cooperation of the customers in using the utmost care in filling out the applications before bringing them to the school. Carrie M. Wight, Supt. of Schools.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Davis of Bethel announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathryn, to Charles Hamlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer H. Hamlin of Gorham, N. H.

Miss Davis was graduated from Gould Academy in the class of 1940 and later attended Westbrook Junior College, Portland. She is now employed in the office at Gould Academy.

Mr. Hamlin was graduated from Gorham High School in 1939 and has attended Bates College the past three years. He is now awaiting training in the U. S. Navy Air Corps.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. Ruth Carver, Priscilla and Lee Carver were in Portland Saturday. Mrs. Myron Bryant and Mrs. Philip Chadbourne accompanied them to Portland and then continued their trip to Boston to spend the week.

Akron, Ohio, recently held a "Give-a-Gun" campaign to aid the scrap metal drive, fixing a quota of 12½ lbs. per person the amount of metal in a .30 caliber machine gun. A parade featured two 10-ton steam rollers, a 7-ton mixer, several hearses.

MAINE IN WASHINGTON

(from the office of Senator Ralph O. Brewster)
18 YEAR OLDS

The President's definite declaration for the immediate call for boys of eighteen and nineteen reflects apparently his discovery in his transcontinental tour that the country is desirous above all else of getting on with the war.

POLITICAL REPERCUSSIONS

The impression that unpleasant necessities were being deferred until after the election in early November was evidently reacting badly for the administration. The people did not like the implication that they were so simple that they would not understand.

GAS-RATIONING

Gas-rationing for the whole country to conserve rubber is at long last announced although not going into effect until late November. The tax bill is being pushed with renewed vigor. The Senate disposed of it in a week. And drafting of boys of eighteen and nineteen is being rushed.

Before the World War the bulk of the armies of the world were made up of boys under twenty. This was conspicuous true in our own Civil War.

OLD MEN OF 25

We began to think older men were at least as useful but it seems not to be working out in this increasingly mechanized war. The Army Hospitals in this country are filled with men over 25 who cannot stand the strain of modern war. What would happen if such men should get overseas where a casualty from any cause is equally a catastrophe.

AGE OF YOUTH

The younger men learn far more quickly the intricacies of the mechanized marvels of modern war and are able to adapt themselves much more quickly to its terrific tempo.

LEADERSHIP

This does not mean that there are not plenty of men over twenty-five physically and mentally capable of serving as leaders but it does mean that beyond that age the average man is not fitted for modern war.

A YEAR OF TRAINING

There is considerable insistence that these younger men under twenty shall be assured of a year of training before being sent into combat in justice to their youth. Undoubtedly this is much to be desired from every standpoint and will be the endeavor of those in authority whether or not it shall be stipulated in the law.

FOUR MILLION NOW IN TRAINING

With four million men now in training and with the current limitations on transport overseas it seems obvious that the new recruits of this winter could not possibly get overseas for at least another year.

MOBILIZATION OF MANPOWER

All agree that the next big question for decision is how most effectively to allocate our manpower. Everyone cannot get on the firing line because there would be nothing for them to fire.

Eighteen are needed behind the line for every one that is at the front. That includes both those in the service of supply and in the factories and on the farms.

A modern plane requires a hundred men to build and service and keep it operating at the front.

THE FARMER

FEEDS THE FIGHTERS
Even a pilot requires food and also his mechanics and all the millions of others in the war plants throughout the United States.

Suddenly we are learning our dependence upon the farm. Everyone in industry is to have cost plus a fair profit. Industrial wages are at unprecedented heights.

PATRIOTISM

Some minds bounded by the confines of New York and thoroughly understanding so-called labor problems, (in factories) and nothing else seem to think farmers will and must produce for purely patriotic reasons.

No one else is approached with any such proposal. $25,000 a year as a salary for a labor coordinator in the Portland shipyards for a part-time job does not sound in terms of sacrifice.

FARMERS ARE NOT MAGICIANS

Farmers after all must pay their bills. They cannot produce crops without labor and men cannot be hired to work on a farm if they can secure twice as much pay somewhere else.

Drafting farm labor is drying up our crops. This is the story from

A MASTER PLAN

All this adds up to the imperative necessity of a plan for organizing our productive energies that will be calculated most quickly to win the war.

This means everyone—young and old—men and women alike. All Americans want to know how they may be of the most help.

Recognition of the problem is the surest guarantee that the answer will be found.

EDUCATION

Boys especially, qualified for training in sciences and medicine will continue their education by government direction in all probability. We cannot lose entirely an educated generation. Certain colleges will be selected to carry on as training schools but with something approximating military discipline and no fooling.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

SLOW, SHARP AND STEADY

Everybody has heard of the three "R's" but the photographer who took this picture knew the three "S's" of successful photography—Slow, Sharp, and Steady—and applied them to his work.

READIN', 'Ritin', 'Rithmetic—the three "R's"—are familiar to all of us. But have you heard of the three "S's" of photography—Slow, Sharp, and Steady? They're the basis of many a fine picture, even though most of us never think of them often enough.

Consider "Slowness" for instance. Nobody likes to be thought of as a slow worker. Everybody likes to be right up on his toes when taking pictures . . . getting the job done fast and efficiently . . . and that's fine under most circumstances, but when you're just getting started photographically, it often leads to unnecessary mistakes.

So before making any snapshot, take the time to think things through and check up on yourself. Make sure your focus, exposure, and composition are right. And remember that the second "S" is success.

ful photography—Sharpness—depends upon correct focus. So don't guess. If you aren't certain, either measure the distance from your camera to your subject, pace it off, or use a range finder, unless your camera is fixed focus. That's the way most experienced photographers work.

Finally, remember that the "Steadiness" which helps you avoid blurred pictures means holding your camera absolutely still. If you can't do that, place it on some firm support such as a tripod, a table, or a fence, and don't jar it when you are making exposures. With the camera empty, of course, practice releasing the shutter with a smooth, even "squeeze" until you can make your exposures without jarring the camera at all. That's the Slow, Sharp, and Steady way to photographic success.

ECONOMIC HIGHLIGHTS

National and International Problems Inseparable from Local Welfare

The new anti-inflation bill, which was passed with relatively great speed by Congress and put into effect by Presidential directive on October 4, is one more important link on the long chain of "total war" legislation. Such a bill would be unthinkable except in time of great crisis. It gives the government almost limitless economic control over the individuals and industries of the nation. But there was little opposition to it. Economists of all schools have agreed that inflation is the direct internal danger we face—and that tough laws and tough administration of the laws is absolutely vital.

The bill, as passed, does not go as far as many economists believe it should. It is frankly a compromise measure. The labor bloc and the farm bloc in the House and Senate got a good part of what they wanted. Farm prices, for instance are to be stabilized at the high level obtaining on September 15. All existing "parity" provisions are to be observed. Wages also are to be stabilized at the high level of September 15, and they are not to be reduced below the highest point reached between January 1 and September 15. It is further provided that the War Labor Board can raise wages if it finds that necessary to correct "gross maladjustments." It is certain that some labor groups will make efforts to gain wage increases under this clause of the statute.

The law places no restrictions on salaries below $5,000 a year. However, it forbids increases in salaries above that amount unless approved by the Director or Economie Stabilization—or unless the salaried worker in question has been advanced to a more difficult and responsible position. It is considered possible that this clause may be used to restrict salaries to a maximum of $25,000, after taxes. The Director has the power to order a corporation to eliminate all salary in excess of $25,000 paid to an individual in making its income tax returns, and in computing cost-plus government contracts.

It is easier to pass a law of this kind than to rigorously enforce it. And so one big unanswered question is just what effect the law will have on the formidable and growing "black market" in this country. People with money in their pockets and a desire for scarce goods will offer higher than ceiling prices—and sellers will be found to bootleg the goods, law or no law. The policing job, as a result, will be a difficult one. One clause in the bill provides that it shall be enforced by any and all departments of the government, using any and all laws and powers of the United States. In short, the measure is an all-inclusive one, and Congress put teeth in it.

Within the next few months it seems certain that a number of other unprecedented laws will be passed. The most important of the projected measures is the total mobilization bill. The draft is depriving industry and agriculture of sorely needed workers. Also, workers, attracted by the high wages paid by war industry, have left the farms in droves—and the agricultural labor situation is extremely serious as a result. The total mobilization plan envisions making it impossible for any man to change his job without permission from the War Manpower Commission. It would prevent industries from competing against each other for workers. It would force millions of people who are now not working, or who are now employed in "non-essential" undertakings, to go to work in war plants and on farms. And it would probably outlaw enlistments in the armed forces. According to some experts, the Army and the Navy have been accepting recruits who would be far more valuable to their country in a civilian capacity.

It is obvious that universal mobilization and universal war service would represent dictatorship of the most absolute kind. For that reason, government officials have been chary of even discussing it. But a great many authorities are reluctantly coming to the conclusion that, in time, it will be unavoidable. By the end of next year, according to present prophecies, about 60,000,000 people will have to be engaged in the war effort in one way or another. The latest prediction is that we will have an armed force of 10,000,000 to 13,000,000 men. Their needs will be almost insatiable. So, the argument runs, every pair of hands which can do any work at all will have to be used. And the only way to obtain maximum utilization of our manpower and womanpower through compulsion.

It is also distinctly likely that Congress will soon have to pass another tax bill. The last tax bill is the heaviest in our history, but most economists are dubious of its ability to produce enough money. They are also convinced that the sales tax and forced savings are as inevitable as tomorrow morning—both as money raisers, and as aids against inflation. To sum up, our troops are about to see more action on the war front—and our civilians will see more action on the home front at the same time.

The military men think that German air-raids on England will increase heavily this winter. Reason: ice and snow will immobilize the opposing forces in Russia, and that will make it possible for Goering to divert his air force to the West. At the same time Allied airpower is growing fast, and very ambitious plans have been made for blasting the Reich from the skies.

Norwegians Defy Nazis

TESTIMONY to the spirit of independence which still burns brightly after nearly two years of German occupation is this photo of a telephone pole "somewhere in Norway." The pole bears a picture of King Haakon VII, Crown Prince Olav and the latter's little son, Harald, mounted by patriotic Norwegians in spite of the heavy punishment which is inflicted on all those caught by the Germans. Under the picture are chalked an "H" (for Haakon VII) and "V" for Victory. Photo is one of several brought from Norway by a refugee who escaped to Britain by sailboat.

ARISTOCRAT OF SUITS
as worn in Hollywood by ANITA LOUISE

Attractive Star of the Screen

This crisply tailored suit is a Hollywood creation and is its interpretation for tying in ultra style with wartime conservatism.

Proclaimed an aristocrat of suits, its pedigree smartness is evidenced in the exquisite fabric—pin-striped black bengaline—and contrasted with large reversed collar of snowy white bengaline. The long sleeve are decorative in their features, as are the shallow pockets on each side of the jacket front. The skirt is smartly cut and carefully tailored, with pleats in front and back. It can be worn either with blouse or sweaters with equal effect, proving its practicality. Here is a suit that is a shining example of the fashionable, durable and economical clothes one should include in a "Victory Wardrobe." It answers all what-to-wear problems perfectly for the duration.

More Precious Than Gold

"Well I declare!" exclaimed great aunt Matilda one morning not long ago, "To think I'd live to see this day!"

"What day?" I inquired, wondering what had displeased the old lady this time.

"Why the day when gold no longer matters—and my own father one that risked his life sailing around the Horn to the gold fields in '49." "But of course it matters," I told her. "Why it's the most romantic, the most precious, the most beautiful metal in the world."

"Yes, and they shut down all the big gold mines in the country so the miners can dig for—copper!"

"But copper is badly needed in war production," I explained. "It's used in a lot of different war products, while gold isn't necessary to many people except the dentist. Besides we have a lot of it buried out in Kentucky. This is the age of industry, you know, and what counts is the number of machines a country has, the efficiency of managers of its factories, and the number and skill of its workers... not the amount of gold in its banks."

"Time was when great stores of the fabulous metal made a country rich and powerful. But today it's a country's capacity to build things that matters so. Industry needs all the men it can get to mine copper and coal and iron and produce the weapons with which this war will be won."

"But after the war..." the old lady began.

"After the war," I interrupted her, "our great industrial system must concentrate—for years—on producing the conveniences and comforts for the homes of this country and food for much of the world. We're going to have to do without a lot of things we'd like to have during the next few years. Our backlog of desires is going to get larger and larger the longer the war goes on. So even after the war we aren't going to be particularly interested in gold. What we are going to be interested in are

Dramatic Club

At the second meeting of the newly formed Dramatic Club, held on Wednesday, October 7, and attended by forty-nine members, the following list of officers for the coming year was announced:

President—Norman Jacobs

Vice President—John Lawry

Secretary—Harriette Holmes

Mr. Thompson announced that three one-act plays had been selected for production before the Christmas holidays. These are The Valiant, Thank You, Doctor, and Our Dearest Possession. These permit acting parts for eight boys and nine girls. Try outs will start shortly. The rest of the meeting was spent in trial readings from The Laboratory Stage, a new text of selections from recent successful plays.

Mr. Thompson has finished casting for the first of the three one-act plays to be presented December 11, The Valiant, and has chosen the following student actors:

Warden Holt, Norman Jacobs, Father Daly, John Lawry, James Dyke, William Bradlee, Josephine Paris, Caroline Goudy, Dan, a jailer, Albert Brewster. Casting for the other plays is continuing all this week.

Athletic Council

The Girls' Athletic Council held a short meeting Tuesday morning, Oct. 20. It had been hoped that the fall party could be held soon, but due to so many activities at this time, it was decided that it should be on Friday, Nov. 13. Committees have been chosen and the preparations for the party are well under way. It is to be put on by the day students.

Dramatic Club

After extensive try-outs over a week's period, Mr. Thompson finally chose the casts for the three one-act plays to be presented on the evening of Dec. 11. Much interest was shown, and a wealth of talent appeared, making final selections a difficult task. The casts follow:

The Valiant—Warden Holt, Norman Jacobs, Berlin, N. H.; Father Daly, John Lawry, Melrose, Mass.; James Dyke, William Bradlee, Scituate, Mass.; Josephine Paris, Carolyn Goudy, East Boothbay; Dan, a jailer, Albert Brewster, Boston.

Our Dearest Possession—Mrs. Harvey J. Clarke, Ilene Goodrich, West Danville, Vt.; Millicent Clarke, Betty Burton, Wiscasset; Miss Perry, Margery Howard, Kennebunkport; Hilda Blaine, Susanne Delatour, New York City; Jane Harris, Barbara Doyle, Newton Center, Mass.; Maid, Virginia Griffin, Darien, Conn.

Thank You, Doctor—Dr. Gurney,

Robert Golderman, Mechanic Falls; Denny Cort, Howard Sanborn, South Paris; The Patient, Robert Townsend, Damariscotta; Mrs. Lester, Leonora Chiera, Wiscasset; The Nurse, Kathleen Bragg, St. Albans.

In choosing these plays, the club hopes to offer an evening of varied entertainment. The Valiant is a tragic play, well known to play tournaments; Our Dearest Possession offers an all-girl cast in a gripping dramatic story of family pride; Thank You, Doctor is a sure-fire farce with typically grotesque situations.

Committees to handle scenery, business, and production will soon be named from the 50 members of the club.

Camera Club

The meeting of the Gould Academy Camera Club Friday, Oct. 16, proved to be a more or less informal one because several members were not able to be present, due to conflicts in schedule.

A committee was formed to decide upon the officers for the year and is to report at the next meeting. This committee consists of Anne Aldrich, Malcolm Brown, Bob Foster, Carolyn Goudy, David Hawkins, Norman Jacobs, and Clayton Sweatt.

The other business of the meeting was a general discussion of cameras, magazines, and plans for the year.

At Ebbets Field, Brooklyn 6,000

Boy Scouts recently were admitted to a Dodgers ball game on the strength of six tons of scrap they brought along.

Our men need tanks, ships and guns. The steel for these must be made from 50% scrap metal. But the Nation's steel mills don't have enough scrap on hand to last even 30 days more! Keep 'em running. Help build up a huge scrap stockpile—the bigger the better.

GO down into your basement—your storeroom. Climb up to the attic too. Look at the unused stuff you're sure to find, and realize how important these odds and ends can be.

Important to a kid half way around the world. Important to a blue-clad gop—to a flyer, racing to reach the target before some knifing Messerschmitt can find its mark.

That old metal means steel for these men. And steel means armor plate for safety—weapons and ships for Victory.

Without it they'll die. They're not afraid of that—but it's better to give a life for a cause than to be sacrificed by thoughtlessness. And it's better yet to live, knowing that the folks back home didn't let them down.

YOUR NEGLECT WILL COST SOME BRAVE BOY'S LIFE!

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The Navy is making a plea to civilians to turn in their binoculars for military use during the War. The Army and Navy both need binoculars for navigation and scouting purposes. Depending on the power of the lenses, they cost from $450 to $800 each.

If you have a set of 6 x 30 up to 7 x 50-power lenses binoculars loan them to the Army or Navy. If not, your purchase of War Bonds and Stamps will help buy this equipment for our fighting forces. At least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every payday will do the job . . . and provide the "eyes" through which a scouting pilot may spot an enemy battleship.

It is imperative that the ship lanes be kept free of ice. With American troops occupying Iceland and the Navy using the northern route for transportation of supplies to Russia, ice breakers are essential to Naval operations. The ice breaker is a specially constructed ship with heavily armored bows and powerful engines that crush the ice floes rather than ram through them.

Ice breakers of the Kickapoo class operating in the North Atlantic cost approximately $10,000,000. You can help our Navy build these ships by investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every payday. Enroll in the payroll savings plan or apply at the nearest bank or postoffice. U. While at no time were the grounds packed, for several hours Saturday a large crowd was well distributed over the park, and it is expected that the final reports will show that all expenses have been met.

Kidneys Must Work Well-

For You To Feel Well
24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood. If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly.
Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling. Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulate the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.
